Prayers of the Faithful

Reminded of God's love for us without limit, we now offer to God the Father the sacrifice of our prayers as we turn to him with our prayers;

1. For all the leaders in the Church; by word and example may others find in the Church a place of mercy, feel welcomed, loved, forgiven, and directed to the good life of the Gospel. Lord, hear us.
2. That the political leaders in our country can learn of God's love, to become an instrument of assistance to those in their care. Lord, hear us.
3. For those in our parish community and families who live far from God's love; help us all to lead them to the truth, to find the guidance they are looking for, and to understand Your love. Lord, hear us.
4. That the Lord will be close to those who call upon Him in time of distress especially those who suffer prejudice, discrimination, or oppression. Lord hear us.
5. For all our students in the midst of exams; may the Holy Spirit give them perseverance in preparation, guide them in their moments of anxiety, and may they trust His closeness to them. Lord, hear us.

Father, You sent Your Son that all may be unified in Him. Give us the true gift of fraternal love for all who share faith in Him. May all humankind be one day united in Jesus Christ. Who live and reign forever and ever. Amen.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Br Antony Sahayampillai, of the Presentation Brothers, who made his First Profession of Vows, with Bishop Fintan Gavin in St Finbarr's South Church on Saturday 1st June.

I want to express my thanks to those who have helped me reach this day of First Profession and to those who have made this celebration possible:

Firstly, to my dear parents, family and friends at home, who first nurtured my vocation and who joined us online today. After my amazing experience in Ireland, I am looking forward to travelling home on holidays soon. I will have much to share with you.

To Bishop Fintan Gavin, a great friend of our Community, for being with us today and celebrating the Mass, thus maintaining the historic and special connection between the Presentation Brothers and the Bishop of Cork and Ross.

To all the Brothers of the Presentation Congregation and the members of the Presentation Family, to our Congregation Leader, Br Barry Noel, my first formator.

To Br Martin Kenneally my present formator, and the Mardyke House Community.

To Fr Kevin O'Regan and the Community of South Parish for graciously hosting today's celebration.

To all the priest concelebrants and those who served in different roles in the liturgy.

To my good friends in the Cathedral Choir, under musical director Susan Ormond, and to our organist, Joe Higgins.

To Br. Simon Fernandes and Br. Denis Ahern OFM, my friends and witnesses.

And finally, to all who participated in this Mass. I am so grateful for your presence and your prayers.

-Br Antony
