Lent

Lent is a time of fasting, but let us not forget the purpose. We fast from those things that pull us away from God and pull us back into darkness. We dedicate more quiet time to prayer remain intimately present to the Lord, to share our thoughts, feelings and concerns with him. We continue to give ourselves to the Lord in loving obedience to him and in loving ministry to those in greatest need.

Young Adult Mass
Ss. Peter and Paul's, Cork City

Sunday 8th March at 7pm
Second Sunday of Every Month
Animated by young adults with music, serving and hospitality - all are welcome!
youthministry@corkandross.org

Cork City Hall was filled with energy and applause as almost 500 young people lit up the stage with a concert.

The Maranatha 2026 concert featured post-primary school students from parishes throughout the Diocese of Cork and Ross. Twenty-three schools came together for the celebration, transforming the historic venue into a powerful showcase of talent and conviction. Maranatha blends music, faith and fun — creating a space where students can express who they are, celebrate their identity and build lasting connections and friendships in an atmosphere of joy and community.

Bishop Fintan Gavin addressed the young people and the hundreds gathered from across the Diocese and reflected on the deeper purpose of Maranatha — a question that resonates with every generation. “This morning you began with a simple question: Who here wants to be happy? And every hand went up. Deep down, every human heart longs for happiness. Before you succeed or fail, before anyone comments on you or follows you, you are the beloved son or daughter of God. You don’t earn that. You don’t compete for it. You receive it. Happiness begins as a gift received and it grows when it becomes a gift given away for others.”

Reflection

This season reminds us that life is more than daily bread, it is faith, love, and mercy. At Emmaus Café, we are reminded of how Christ nourishes us in ordinary moments, as He did the disciples on their journey. “One does not live by bread alone.” (Matthew 4:4)
