Jubilee of Consecrated Life Celebrated at Cathedral of St. Mary and St. Anne

Members of religious communities, along with people from across the Diocese, also participated in the event virtually through the Cathedral's livestream.

The jubilee year focuses on the theme of hope, a message central to the celebration. It was celebrated on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord – the day when candles are blessed at Mass.

In his homily, Bishop Fintan reflected on the various forms of darkness that individuals may face in life - loneliness, grief, isolation, and a sense of loss of direction or meaning.

He urged those present to embrace the light of God, stating, "This feast invites us to continue to open our minds, our spirits, our hearts to the light who is God, and challenges us to bring that light and that hope to those we encounter in our lives."

Bishop Fintan expressed deep gratitude to religious women and men, acknowledging the profound impact of their witness and service to the Church.
