The Most Holy Trinity

Of all the great feasts we celebrate within the Church throughout the year, today's Solemnity presents us with a Mystery that is so deep and transcendent that our eternity will be spent in perpetual contemplation. The Trinity, the life of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, will never get old, never be fully understood, and will be the cause of our everlasting adoration and joy. Though the Church has used philosophical concepts to explain the Trinity, no human concept or description will ever fully explain Who God is. Though we can point to some general truths about God, we will never be able to fully depict the inner essence, depth, beauty and omnipotence of the Trinity.

The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are Persons. And as Persons, they want to be known. And they want to be known primarily through a life of deep and intimate prayer. Praying to One Person, of course, is praying to all, since they are One God. But we are, nonetheless, called to a relationship of love with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. And though our feeble minds may not be able to fully comprehend the essence of God, He will draw us deeper and deeper into a knowledge of Him if we let Him.

Reflection

God is present in the rhythm of ordinary days. At Emmaus Café, we notice His presence in shared stories, laughter, and small acts of care—like walking with the disciples, God is near in simple moments. “The Lord is near to all who call on him.” (Psalm 145:18)

We remember and pray for our

Saint Carlo Acutis,
you remind us that
holiness is possible
when we place Jesus at the centre of our lives, especially in the Eucharist, which you called your "highway to heaven."

Be with us as we prepare for the 100th anniversary of the Eucharistic Procession
in Cork. As we accompany Jesus in the Procession, teach us to walk with Him
each day, and to see Him in each person,
especially those who are most in need.

We pray for our Diocese of Cork and Ross, that, nourished by Jesus in the Eucharist, we may grow in faith, hope and love. May we be true disciples of Jesus,
sent on mission,
bringing His love,
mercy and peace to
everyone we meet.
Amen.

Saint Carlo Acutis,
pray for us.
